1.7 million people, or around 95% of the population of Tripoli, one third of the entire population of Libya, have turned out in perhaps the largest demonstration ever in world history last Friday, to demand an end to the NATO bombings of Libya. Photos: Mohanned Magam

[redacted]

Source: http://www.mayhaba.net/news/libya